

Businesses

Burlesque Theatre

pictures of scantily clad women "tried to look in," 082H0:47:00

Chinese restaurants

grandfather of Paul Ho made Chinese crepes, 082H0:31:00

Corner stores

near Lord Lansdowne School, 082H0:17:00

David Lee's Famous Chinese Food

bought building for $100,000, sold for over a million, 082H0:45:30 neighbours of Paul Ho owned it, located on Spadina, 082H0:42:00

Haber's Pharmacy (or Haberman's)

little local pharmacy, 082H0:16:00

Kensington Market

changes, more Vietnamese and Jamaican now, 082H0:44:30

still call it the Jewish Market, 082H0:38:00

Massimo's

pizza was really good (at College and Robert), 082H0:16:00

Matsui's

bicycle store "always had a clearance sale sign," 082H0:16:00

Other

Harbord St. stores then and now, 082H0:14:30

Sammy Taft

sold hats on Spadina, 082H0:45:00

Children & Youth

Discipline

mother chasing sons with a broomstick "ruled house," 082H0:29:00

Playing & games

in backyard, "used to break window a lot," 082H0:26:00 games, playing ball against a wall and flipping hockey cards in laneways, 082H0:22:30 in streets, mother would lean outside "you better get home," 082H0:21:30

Education

Chinese school

"learned language, history, science, all in Chinese" needed to recite lessons to mother etc., 082H0:46:00

Lord Lansdowne Public School

Bill Rose, grade 8 teacher, and Nancy Rose, librarian, got babysitter from neighbourhood, 082H0:50:00

students, primarily Chinese and Portuguese in the '70's, 082H0:10:30

University of Toronto

rented to students, 082H0:36:30

Ethnicity & Culture

Chinese community

attitude towards education, 082H0:29:00

children played within own group, Portuguese just acquaintances, 082H0:11:30 gambling, Paul Ho's father, 082H0:32:00

immigration, arrived in 1970, 082H0:01:00

immigration, not many Chinese conveniences available, 082H0:18:30 media, Sing Tao newspaper, 082H0:18:30 religion, Buddhist temple was at Bayview and Finch, 082H0:19:30

Language

Chinese, children mainly spoke in English, 082H0:11:00

Chinese, English as a second language, 082H0:12:00

Chinese school, "learned language, history, science, all in Chinese" needed to recite lessons to mother etc., 082H0:46:00

Health Care

Chinese community

"only one Chinese doctor," 082H0:27:30

Housing & Home Life

Backyards

gardening, "mom used to grow vegetables in the back" and played there too etc., 082H0:24:30

Bathrooms, one bathroom, 082H0:06:00

Bedrooms

seven family members in house on same floor "front room was a bedroom as well," 082H0:04:30

Kitchens

basement kitchen put in by Portuguese family, 082H0:34:00

Porches & verandas

"sit out there a lot," 082H0:24:00

Renovations

fire during basement renovation caused by father, 082H0:33:00

Tenants

"seven of us and another six (tenants)," 082H0:05:30

"to make ends meet rented out second floor and basement," 082H0:04:00

UofT students, 082H0:08:30

Laneways

Children & youth

"we used to play in the lane...and use to go to school," 082H0:23:00

Names

Ho, Paul, 082H0:00:00

education and schools attended,
082H0:48:00

occupation of himself (chiropractor) and his siblings, 082H0:28:30

Ho, Shuck Chun (mother of Paul Ho),
082H0:00:00

didn't need to use English with Chinatown
nearby, 082H0:12:00

had five children in ten years, 082H0:26:00

Ho family

address, 120 Major St., 082H0:07:30

Rose, Bill and Nancy

children babysat by Mrs. Ho, 082H0:50:00

Neighbourhood & Community

Chinatown

didn't need to use English with Chinatown
nearby, 082H0:12:00

Gentrification

"more Caucasians and professionals now...revitalized the neighbourhood,"
082H0:42:30

professional renovation jobs and posh shops on Harbord now, 082H0:14:00

Moving away

immigrant families moved north, Caucasian and professionals moved back,
082H0:44:30

Neighbours & neighbours' relations

"doesn't really know them...too busy at home," 082H0:41:30

"lot of immigrant families, quite a few journalists and Chinese prof at UofT," 082H0:09:00

professor from UofT, 082H0:35:30

Safety

very safe, no deterioration over the years...stable neighbourhood,
082H0:37:00

Occupations & Finances

Daycare

mother ran daycare in house to help
supplement family income,
082H0:49:30

Finances

gambling, mother forced father to hand over paycheque etc., 082H0:32:00

Income

mother ran daycare in house to help
supplement family income,
082H0:49:30

"to make ends meet rented out second floor and basement," 082H0:04:00

Laundry

son gave mother a job to do his clinic's laundry, 082H0:40:00

Maintenance

Paul Ho's father worked at Canada Wire and Cable, 082H0:31:00

Real Estate

Prices

120 Major St. bought for $39,500,
082H0:07:30

bought building for restaurant on Spadina for $100,000, sold for over a million,
082H0:45:30

next door house (address unknown) sold for $800,000, owner didn't have finances to keep up the house...was a big mess, 082H0:43:00

Streets & Intersections

Cecil St., 9

Ho family rented here, 082H0:02:00

College and Major

Matsui's bicycle shop, 082H0:16:00

Matsui's bicycle shop and Haberman's
Pharmacy, 082H0:16:00

College & Robert

Massimo's pizza, 082H0:16:00

Harbord St.

stores then and now, 082H0:14:30

Ho home

address unknown, Ho family lived here since 1973, 082H0:00:00

"it was quite run-down...built in 1903,"
082H0:02:30

property tax was only $300, 082H0:07:30

Major St., 120

bought for $39,500, 082H0:07:30

Nassau St., 22

Ho family first lived here, 082H0:17:30

Spadina Ave.

stores on street and changes over the years,
082H0:46:00

Transportation

Bicycles

three-wheeled tricycle; used by senior to go shopping and pick up laundry at son's clinic, 082H0:39:00